

Dr. G. N. GUTHRIE, Jr.

DENTIST

All Work is Fully Guaranteed

Gibson Building, Down Stairs
Phone at Office and Residence

COOKEVILLE, - TENN.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Santa Claus headquarters at Pincus Bros.

Miss Myrtle Elrod entertained friends from Monterey Thanksgiving.

Mrs. O. K. Holladay has been quite sick for several days.

Bargain Basement just crowded with Xmas goods at Pincus Bros.

Mrs. Silas Scarlett is visiting her son at Double Springs this week.

From now until Xmas—Santa Claus headquarters at Pincus Bros.

Mrs. Etta Jared sends the Herald to Lillie Cline of Middlesboro, Ky.

J. H. Watts is getting in his stock of drugs and is ready to fill prescriptions.

Sweetest weather you ever saw freezing at night and comfortably warm days.

The biggest line of gift goods ever shown in Cookeville. Pincus Bros.

Miss Irma Gentry, who is teaching at Oak Grove, spent Sunday with her mother.

G. W. Alcorn came up from Nashville to vote in the Democratic primary Saturday.

Mrs. Bessie Stone, who has been quite ill for several months, is improving slowly.

We understand that Judge A. H. Roberts has gone to Philadelphia for treatment.

Miss Mollie Mooneyham attended the teacher's state meeting at Chattanooga last week.

Marvin Brown of Nashville spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Brown.

The two weeks old infant daughter of Judge and Mrs. D. L. Lansden died Sunday night.

B. C. Jones came down from Cook place Saturday and went back to his work Monday.

Miss Maybel Hamilton spent a very pleasant weekend at the home of Miss Vada Carr of Nashville.

Little Elsie the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hayden Young is very low with diphtheria.

All the buildings have been moved from the government lot and Uncle Sam can get busy now any time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Duke are spending the week in Nashville with their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Mims.

The local band boys are hard at work on their program for their big show at the Savoy Theatre Dec. 21st.

Miss Gertrude Whitney who has been sick at the home of her sister in Crossville, is rapidly convalescing.

Misses Edna Shirley and Mary Dudley were guests at the house party of Miss Maddux of Granville last week.

Miss Bettie Whitehead won the 10,000 special votes offered by the Herald in the W. T. Anderson contest at Boma.

Biggest line of Xmas toys ever shown in Cookeville at Pincus Bros.

Make your Christmas wants known at Pincus Bros.

The Cookeville Band will give a big show at the Savoy Theatre Dec. 21st. There will be music and singing galore.

J. J. Armstrong, who lives a few miles north of town, raised a gourd this year that measured 62 inches in circumference.

Pincus Bros. great clean-up sale is still going on. Inspect their offerings and you will be certain to secure some real bargains.

Walter Maloney won a prize for selling more Saturday Evening Posts than any other agent in Tennessee during November.

Others are pleased with the banking service we offer. Why don't you try it? We have a long list of well satisfied customers.—First National Bank.

Douglass Sloan, who is attending the Branham & Hughes school at Spring Hill, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sloan.

J. H. Watts went to Nashville Sunday to attend the "Lodge of sorrow" or annual memorial services held by the Elks for their departed members.

Miss Lola Hughes won the 10,000 special votes offered by the Herald in the P. M. Smith contest. She secured 78 subscriptions during November.

All accounts due me for ice and coal prior to Nov. 1st must be paid at once or same will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. C. D. Judd.

Tickets for the Cookeville Band entertainment can be bought from any of the band boys at 25cts—children 15cts—This show will be the big one—Savoy Theatre Dec. 21st.

There will be preaching at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening by the pastor Rev. E. S. McWilliams. You are cordially invited.

G. A. Fleming was re-elected mayor of Monterey in the city election last Saturday after the hottest contest ever held in that hustling town. Dr. R. L. Ray was his opponent.

Misses Myra Sims and Marie McCluen have returned from an extended visit to friends in Tusculum Ala., Memphis, Chattanooga, and Knoxville. They also visited many other places of interest.

A moving picture show is educational as well as entertaining. No one can spend a more pleasant hour than visiting the Savoy Theatre. There you will find the best of pictures perfectly shown and everything clean and up to the minute.

One of the best musical programs ever given in Cookeville was that by the Schubert Quartet at the College Monday night. Each member of company is an artist. The Schuberts were the second attraction of the Lyceum course.

The following were elected officers in the Modern Woodmen for the ensuing year, at their meeting Tuesday night: Chas. D. Judd, Consul; Bedford Robinson, Adviser; Tice Robbins, Escort; W. L. Stewart, Banker; R. H. Wirt, Clerk; J. M. Loftis, Watchman; Virgil Mackie, Sentry; S. D. Davis, Physician; W. A. Hensley, Trustee.

Itch! Itch! Itch!—Scratch! Scratch! scratch! the more you scratch the worse you itch. Try Doan's Liniment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

S. A. D. Smith of Celina is in Cookeville, mingling with friends.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

A very interesting program was rendered on Monday night at the College as the second number of the Lyceum course. The Schuberts proved to be artists of rare ability and were encored after every number and the audience was delighted with the program. There are three numbers to follow the Lyceum Course. These are the best of the course and those who haven't season tickets will find some very desirable seats and the price for the remainder of the Course will be $1.25. Tickets can be obtained from Dr. G. N. Guthrie.

W. T. Anderson Contest

| | |
|-------------------|---------|
| Bettie Whitehead | 252,160 |
| Audrey Anderson | 269,165 |
| Bettie Fisher | 90,450 |
| Maud A. Roberts | 69,370 |
| Mary Boyd | 55,005 |
| Delie Brown | 50,105 |
| Lena Clayton | 19,690 |
| Ida Ellis | 48,725 |
| Ida Medley | 37,715 |
| Vada Sutton | 33,770 |
| Georgia Whitehead | 27,600 |
| Roxie Gentry | 21,730 |
| Maggie Jared | 25,500 |
| Josie Roberts | 20,460 |
| Ulah Lindsey | 15,595 |
| Florence Maynard | 40,375 |
| Allie T. Nabors | 23,670 |
| Birdie Patton | 43,655 |
| Bonnie Holland | 22,365 |
| Maud Roberts | 27,060 |

Only a little over two weeks until Christmas. Do your shopping now.

H. M. Cornwell of Algood was hit by the engine of the shopping train on Monday night and seriously injured. He undertook to cross the track just ahead of the train but failed to make it. Crossing tracks ahead of trains is dangerous, yet many people do it every day in Cookeville; the habit should be stopped before other accidents happen.

It is reported that W. R. Staley seems to think that the city waterworks may go dry by the way his imports come in.

EPPERSON, HARP, POINTER & CO'S. CONTEST

The following is a list of the candidates and their standing on Dec. 5th.

| | |
|-----------------------|--------|
| Mrs. Will Swallows | 71,621 |
| Mrs. Oscar Clark | 63,663 |
| Mrs. H. M. Williams | 70,376 |
| Mrs. A. E. Irwin | 42,180 |
| Mrs. John Cornwell | 41,156 |
| Miss Annie Powers | 39,177 |
| Mrs. R. L. Reagan | 36,729 |
| Mrs. J. B. Dowell | 39,276 |
| Mrs. F. M. Byers | 33,831 |
| Mrs. W. L. Terry | 33,362 |
| Mrs. Alex Burton | 31,917 |
| Mrs. B. P. Pointer | 31,833 |
| Miss Sarah Brewer | 29,873 |
| Mrs. Frank Turner | 30,074 |
| Mrs. G. E. Pennington | 28,595 |
| Mrs. John McCormick | 29,255 |
| Mrs. A. Phillips | 26,650 |
| Mrs. Harvey Qualls | 35,025 |
| Miss Belle Rockwell | 24,952 |
| Mrs. Joe Whitaker | 23,097 |
| Mrs. Jim Buck | 23,573 |
| Mrs. James Ballard | 20,243 |

Free! Free! READ THIS!

A twenty-five cent selection from the general stock of Mr. Anderson will be allowed to purchaser of every one dollar jewelry due bill from now until the end of the contest. This is the most generous offer made by any merchant in the history of Boma. There are no conditions attached to it whatsoever.

In addition, the candidate selling the due bill for the sum of $1.00 is entitled to cast 2000 votes for herself when she turns in the dollar to Mr. Anderson.

The purchaser of the due bill is entitled to cast 2000 additional votes for the candidate of whom she purchases the due bill when she redeems the jewelry due bill for jewelry.

Further, the holder of the due bill is entitled to select twenty-five cents worth of merchandise free of charge for herself from the general stock of Mr. Anderson as above. In addition to this she is allowed to cast 250 votes on the 25 cent selection for the candidate who sold her the due bill.

REMEMBER—First: You are thus sure of 4250 votes for each jewelry due bill sold by you.

Second: The person purchasing the jewelry due bill is assured of full value in the jewelry which she selects. Nothing makes a more tasty Christmas present than a well selected piece of jewelry. Here is a large stock to select from such as rings, waist sets, lace pins, bracelets and etc.

Third: Best of all the holder of the due bill is entitled to select absolutely free of charge 25 cents worth of merchandise from the general stock of Mr. Anderson.

W. T. ANDERSON, Boma, Tenn.